

GAINESVILLE The Sun

Entered December 31, 1902, at Gainesville, Fla., as second-class matter, under Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Published Every Monday and Thursday at Gainesville, Florida.

M. H. M'CREARY, Editor and M'gr.

Terms of Subscription.

The Twice-a-Week Sun, $1 a year; six months, 50c.; single copies, 5c.

Advertising Rates:

Local advertisements, 15 cents a line for the first and 10 cents for each additional insertion.

Display advertisements for three, six and twelve months at special rates. Prices furnished upon application.

Marriage and Death notices inserted free. Obituaries, 5 cents a line.

Our Clubbing List.

The Sun and The Thrice-a-Week (N.Y.) World one year.....$1.65
The Sun and The Atlanta (Ga.) Weekly Constitution one year. 1.75
The Sun and The Atlanta (Ga.) Semi-Weekly Journal one year 1.50
The Sun and The Semi-Weekly Times-Union one year 1.50

We will not accept stamps of a larger denomination than 2 cents.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Subscribers to The Sun who are in arrears are urgently requested to make settlement without further delay.

Under the postal regulations we are prohibited from extending credit to subscribers for more than one year, and those who have not paid up to August, 1908, will be dropped from the list of subscribers during the next two weeks. The privilege of mailing the paper to subscribers who are in arrears for over a year is denied by the postal laws, and we have been notified to comply with this provision at once. If you fail to receive The Sun after the middle of July you will therefore know the reason therefor.

Do not wait to come to town to pay your subscription, but send the amount by mail at once. DO IT NOW.

It is said that a ship has been invented which cannot sink. The next thing should be a storm that won't blow.

An eminent physician prescribes the frequent use of sugar for allaying one's appetite for whiskey. Try it when you are "thirsty."

Good crops require good roads to haul them over. Alachua people are happy over the former this season; but how about the latter?

The Sun has a number of extra copies of the laws passed by the last Legislature which can be had free of charge by those desiring them.

The State Board of Health says "Don't kill the dog; if he has rabies he will soon die; then send the head to the laboratory packed in ice."

The first bale of Sea Island cotton of this year's growth was received in Savannah on August 7th. It was grown in Suwannee county, Florida, and is of very high grade.

The Ocala Banner wants Senator Tallafiero's successor to come from the interior of the State. Well, trot out your candidate. Frank Harris would get this editor's vote.

The evidence and argument have all been submitted to the court in Harry Thaw's application for release from the asylum for the insane in New York, and Justice Mills is expected to render a decision on August 12th.

The increased duty on pineapples secured by Senator Tallafiero was stricken from the tariff bill by the conference committee, and the East Coast pineapple growers will have to continue to grow the fruit in competition with Cuba.

War clouds are again hovering over foreign lands. Japan threatens to wallop China again and Turkey has sent an ultimatum to Greece. The situation in both instances is regarded as acute, and war is liable to be declared at any time.

WOOD WASTE DECREASING.

The waste wood heap continues to diminish and pass away.

A Massachusetts manufacturer of brushes recently made a discovery in Maine which supplied him with material exactly suited to his purpose. He went to the Pine Tree State to buy wood for the backs of hair brushes and the handles of shaving brushes, and chanced to visit the yards of a spool maker who was using white birch. The spool man took the white part of the wood only, and was throwing away the red hearts. Thousands of cords had been burned or dumped in the lake to be rid of it.

The red hearts were exactly what the brush maker wanted, and at little more than the expense of freight he supplied his factory.

This is typical of the trend of manufacturing. Waste of wood is still great, but it is decreasing. What one factory cannot use, another turns to profit. Formerly mills threw away half the forest-tops left in the woods, sawdust dumped in streams to pollute them and destroy fish, slabs burned in perpetual bonfires, and defective logs and low grade lumber abandoned as not worth moving.

This policy does not generally prevail now. Some mills have put in machinery to work up their own by-products, others sell their waste to manufacturers who can use it, as in the case cited in Maine. The properties and uses of woods are now subjects of careful investigation, and the problem of turning to account the odds and ends and the by-products is brought more to the front now than formerly.

The United States Forest Service has taken up this study in a comprehensive and systematic way. Investigations of the woods of particular States are being conducted, usually in co-operation with the States concerned. The plan, when fully carried out, will include every commercial wood in the United States, not fewer than 200 species. The properties of each will be investigated, its hardness, toughness, elasticity, durability, weight, fuel value, size of tree, regions where grown, the common names by which it is known in different localities, and other matters of this kind. A history of the wood's uses in the past will be given, and an account of present uses, together with suggestions for a wider range of usefulness in the future by pointing out in what capacities it will serve best and be most valuable.

L. T. Shaw of Brookier, says The Starke Telegraph, brought The Telegraph a can each of tomatoes and peaches put up with a small canning outfit bought by him for canning fruit and vegetables for home use. The tomatoes and peaches left at this office were equal to any put up by the large canneries. Mr. Shaw's outfit has a capacity of 200 cans a day and he finds it profitable to do canning for his neighbors. Others in the same community have these small canning outfits and Mr. Shaw says it will not be long until his neighbors will be provided every season with an ample supply of canned fruit and vegetables. This begins to sound like living at home.

A father may turn his back on his child, brothers and sisters may become inveterate enemies, husbands may desert their wives and wives their husbands, but a mother's love endures through all; in good repute, in bad repute, in the face of the world's condemnation, a mother still loves on, and still hopes that her child may turn from his evil ways and repent; still she remembers the infant smiles that once filled her bosom with rapture, the merry laugh, the joyful shout of his childhood, the opening promise of his youth; and she can never be brought to think him all unworthy.—Washington Irving.

A few Florida editors are unintentionally doing Gainesville an injustice in publishing an item that we are "preparing" to install a sewerage system. A good sewerage system was completed in this city some three years ago, and if our editorial friends had read the advertisement from which they gained their information they would have found that the same asked for bids for a still further extension of the sewer mains.

During a week's stay in Jacksonville, Pure Food Inspector Jordan only saw two drunken men. Probably the others saw him first.

Editors McKenzie and Russell, of The Palatka Times and News respectively, were evidently imposed upon in the information given them regarding the game of baseball played in this city last Thursday between the Gem City and Gainesville teams. No one, so far as we could learn, disputed that the Gainesville team won the game fairly; Harvey Hutchinson's decisions were as fair as they possibly could have been, and the home boys were often more dissatisfied with his rulings than were the Palatka players. The disturbance occurred after the winning run had been made by Gainesville, and was the result of an unfortunate misunderstanding resulting from excitable persons on both sides who "got together" before cooler heads could prevent the "scrap."

Judge William Mann defeated St. George Tucker for the Democratic nomination for Governor in the Virginia primary by between three thousand and five thousand votes. Mann had the support of the Anti-Saloon League and stated on the stump that although he favored local option he would sign a State-wide prohibition law if passed by the Legislature. There was intense interest in the campaign, but, strange to say, a light vote was polled on election day. The successful candidate had a perfect organization back of him, while Tucker depended largely upon his personal popularity with the people. Organization is what accomplishes results in politics.

Editor A. P. Jordan, State pure food inspector, says in his Punta Gorda Herald: "No serious or flagrant violations of the Florida pure food law have yet been discovered. Most of the violations consist in the use on the labels of smaller letters than the law requires. There are many instances of the omission from the labels of old goods of words prescribed by the law, but the dealers in general are trying to supply the omissions. These occur on goods that were on hand before the law was enacted."

West Florida tobacco growers have as yet failed to find buyers for the excellent crop of tobacco they produced last year. This has placed many of the business men as well as the growers in an embarrassing position, and the outlook for relief in the way of a demand for the weed is not at all encouraging.

It is said that Col. Toomer of Jacksonville contemplates measuring swords with Frank Clark for Congressional honors. Col. Toomer is a good and able man, reputed to possess a comfortable fortune, a portion of which he is willing to part with for the honor of going to Congress.

LOCHLOOSA NEWS NOTES.

Fish Frys and Chicken Pillaus Enjoyed by Young People.

LOCHLOOSA, Aug. 11.—E. A. Tompkins of Fort McCoy spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Tompkins, last week.

A. C. J. C. and J. O. Haymans spent last Sunday with friends at Island Grove.

Four gentlemen from Anthony were up Tuesday enjoying themselves fishing. They had fine luck and caught a nice bunch of fish to take home with them.

O. W. Sykes of Island Grove spent Sunday with friends here.

J. A. Williamson of Fort McCoy is spending some time with friends here.

Miss Lois Tompkins, one of Lochloosa's most charming and accomplished young ladies, entertained quite a number of her young friends Friday evening in the way of a card party. Many different games were played and all expressed themselves as having a most enjoyable time.

Saturday night a crowd of the boys of this community gathered at the lake for a fish fry. When the fish were fried we decided there was not enough, so we bought a couple of setting hens and bogged them up in rice, but when we came down with the chickens a few of the boys deserted, supposing, we guess, that it would be too late when the pillau was ready to devour.

A fish fry was given by the Hawthorn citizens at Garrison Hammock Saturday. Fish were plentiful, and after dinner J. H. Upthegrove took us all around the lake to Hilleary sulphur springs, which is the best sulphur water in the State. After our return to the hammock all departed for their homes, expressing themselves as having had a nice time.

THE NEWS FROM WALDO.

Interesting Notes Concerning Doings of People of That Town.

WALDO, Aug. 11.—Mr. Hendley is having an addition built onto his residence by Contractor Frank Jolly, which will add much to its convenience and appearance.

J. L. Stevens, and also Mr. Paulson of Orange Heights, have been aiding Mrs. Atwater since the death of Postmaster Atwater. Having been her husband's assistant for years, Mrs. Atwater is thoroughly competent and is also universally popular and consequently has received the recommendation for appointment as his successor.

Mrs. Morrison and children of Daytona, who has been spending some time with Mr. Weeks and family, have gone to Hawthorn, but will return here before they go to Sanford, where they will live in future.

Mrs. W. B. Ennis returned with D. L. Branning from Tampa on his recent trip to that city, and will make an extended visit here.

Mrs. I. N. Morris recently returned from Columbus, Ga., where she visited her daughter and is quite sick at her home with her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Boring.

Rev. T. L. Z. Barr filled his appointment here morning and evening last Sunday, and also at Orange Heights in the afternoon, driving over there, but was feeble from his recent illness of nervousness and malarial fever. He is just back from a month's vacation in North Georgia and White Springs.

Rev. T. J. Phillips, a former pastor here, has had an operation performed in Tampa for a growth in his nose, which was not as successful as hoped, and he has been off his work for more than a month.

Mrs. J. R. Wilkerson took in the excursion to Tampa and visited her brother, Dr. Murphy, who is in very bad health.

Miss Effie Pettit is back from Gainesville, where she attended the Normal School.

Mrs. John P. Entenza and two children have gone to Tennessee on a long visit.

Mrs. John L. Winter, daughter, Miss Ruby, and son, Parke, left Wednesday for Aurora, Ill., where, and at other points, Mrs. Winter will visit her mother and brothers on a long stay.

Mr. Summers will soon give up the Waldo House and move into a private residence.

Several responses have been received by mail by Mayor L. C. Doane containing contributions for the purchase of presents for Mrs. Tempy Newberry, who will celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of her birth on the 16th inst. The ladies are getting up an afternoon gathering at her home and each will present something substantial on that day. Among the gifts of the men will be a serviceable second-hand buggy.

DEATH OF GILES FOWLER.

News was received in Jacksonville yesterday of the death at Greenville, Fla., of Mr. Giles Fowler, the end coming at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. Mr. Fowler was 65 years of age and formerly lived in this city. He had been in the lumber business for twenty years past and was an extensive owner of property in Jacksonville. In this city Mr. Fowler was well-known and greatly esteemed for his many excellent qualities. Upright and honorable in all business matters, he was a warm friend and a man devoted to his family. He had avoided all political prominence, but was nevertheless faithful to every duty to his State and his death will be sincerely mourned.

Mr. Fowler left ten children, Miss Anna Fowler, Mrs. B. V. Page of Lyons, Ga., Mrs. J. A. Armstead of Greenville, Mrs. J. W. Walker of Ashburn, Ga., Mrs. J. F. Mixon and Mrs. M. M. Gay of Greenville, C. B. Fowler of Lochloosa, Fla., and Messrs. Z. V. W. J. and J. R. Fowler of Greenville.

The body of Mr. Fowler will be brought to Jacksonville this morning and the funeral will be held at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.—Times-Union, 11th.

Mr. Fowler was for a number of years engaged in the sawmill business in this county, having his mills located in the eastern portion, but removed from that point to Lennon, in Levy county, where he remained in business with his son until they exhausted a large tract of timber.

PAM-ALA

for MALARIA (Chills and Fever) Rids the blood of the Malarial poison.

O. S. Stevens, Placide Hotel, Jacksonville, writes: "March 12, 1909, I was suffering from Chills and Fever. After taking 'PAM-ALA' the chills and fever disappeared. After suffering for years from Malaria I have at last found a remedy for it, and gladly recommend it to all those who suffer as I did."

Contains no Quinine. Sold by all druggists. $1.00 bottle.

THE CO-OPERATIVE CONTEST.

Business Houses That Are in the Plan Which Will Issue Votes.

The handsome pianos and diamond ring to be given away in the Co-Operative Contest will be the grandest distribution of prizes ever offered in Alachua county.

Parties trading with any of the following stores will be given one vote for every penny spent:

Gainesville Furniture Company, furniture; Phifer & Morris Co., clothing and furnishings; Gainesville Hardware Co., plumbing and hardware; Mrs. F. T. McCormick, millinery; W. M. Johnson, drugs and medicines; L. C. Smith, shoes and jewelry; Mrs. R. Wilson, dry goods and notions; Saunders & Earle, groceries and feed stuffs; City Bakery, bread and pastry; P. Y. Smith, fresh meats; Crawford & Davis, livery and sale stables; The Sun, printing and publishing; The Brown House, meals and lodging; N. Francisco, Banana House, fruits, etc.; Eddins Mfg. Co., lumber and building material; Standard Fertilizer Co., fertilizer.

Votes will be given on all orders for job printing at The Sun office, and on subscriptions as follows:

The Daily Sun.

$1.25, three months subscription, old subscribers, 500 votes; new subscribers, 700 votes.

$2.50, six months' subscription, old subscribers, 1,200 votes; new subscribers, 1,500 votes.

$5, one year's subscription, old subscribers, 3,500 votes; new subscribers, 4,500 votes.

For a club of five one-year subscriptions (before 12 o'clock noon, Aug. 18, 1909), old subscribers, 30,000 votes; new subscribers, 35,000 votes.

For a club of ten six-months' subscriptions (before 12 o'clock noon, Aug. 18, 1909), old subscribers, 30,000 votes; new subscribers, 35,000 votes.

There is no limit to the number of clubs each contestant may secure.

The Semi-Weekly Sun.

$1, one year's subscription, 500 votes.

For a club of five one-year subscriptions, 5,000 votes.

For a club of twenty-five one-year subscriptions, 35,000 votes.

There is no limit to the number of clubs each contestant may secure.

If its worth more to someone else than to you—no matter what it is—a want ad will be a good investment.

You Need Eye Glasses

If your head aches after reading or after any unusual use of the eyes.

The Ache Is Due to the Strain on the Optical Nerve

Our Eye-Glasses will relieve this strain and correct the vision permanently.

Come in and let us make a scientific examination of your eyes.

C. H. COLES & SON

Jewelers and Opticians

GAINESVILLE